

Should university education be free and paid for by the government?	Should student have to wear school uniforms?	Should parents choose university courses for their children?	Should the elderly, or the young stand on a crowded bus?	Should students have to do military service?
Should we keep the death sentence for serious crimes?	Should students have wi-fi in their dormitories?	Should text books and notebooks be replaced with iPads (or similar)?	Should you marry for love or money?	Should the Gaokao be replaced or changed?
Should McDonald's or KFC be allowed on campus?	Should we be allowed to buy violent video games?	Should boys and girls be in separate classes?	Should downloading pirated music and videos be punishable?	Should students and teachers be allowed to swear in class?
Should gay people be allowed to legally marry?	Should the school have more online classes and less classroom classes?	Should smoking be allowed, or banned in restaurants?	Should mobile phones, iPads and iWatches be allowed in high schools?	Should parents be allowed to read their children's weChat accounts?
Should English be the only language on the planet?	Should foreign companies be allowed to buy local companies?	Should the economy be more important than the environment?	Should schools have more sports and physical education, or arts and creativity?	Should teachers give homework to their students?

